THE WAILES BILL

PASSES THE SENATE.

TALLAHASSEE, FLA., May 26.
Special to the Ocala Daily Banner.

By a vote of twenty to twelve the senate, after a long day of oratory and sharp parliamentary contests, passed Wailes' bill appropriating seventy-seven thousand dollars as his compensation in pushing the claim through congress. Amendments reducing this amount to twenty five thousand and thirty eight thousand and increasing it to one hundred thousand dollars were lost.

Belief tonight strong that contest will take place in the house and a possibility of the governor vetoing it is being discussed. Gibbons anti trust bill passed the house by big majority.

"A Lawyer and an Honest Man."
To the Editor of the Ocala Banner.

I want all my friends and neighbors to know that I went to H. L. Anderson, an attorney in Ocala, with some of my friends, and told him my condition. That I was in destitute circumstances and had my little daughter to support, and no one to look after her. I told him all the circumstances connected with my trade with Walter Ellison. I told him I could not even pay the cost of suit. H. L. Anderson, out of sympathy for me and my child, believed I was being wronged, took my case. Gave me money. Paid the costs it accrued, and attended to all matters connected with the suit, and made a fair and satisfactory settlement for me with my opponent. After everything was settled and I had gained everything I could expect from a suit Mr. Anderson told me to come to his office with him. By this time the money that Mr. Anderson had paid out and his fee began to bother me. I began to plead with Mr. Anderson to be light in his fee. Here is his reply: "Mr. Haggard, you and your little daughter will need what you have left in this case. I will charge no fee. If you desire to pay the money I have paid out, all right, but if not you can use it. Now go home and go to work and watch out in the future." There is nothing that could induce Mr. Anderson to treat me so kind as I have neither position nor influence. I want to tell the public that H. L. Anderson is no milk and cider man. If you want to succeed go to H. L. Anderson. Before I went to Mr. Anderson to help me I went to another lawyer in Ocala in whom I had confidence. I told him my case as I did Mr. Anderson. He replied in a very short and crusty manner that if I had no money he could not talk to me. But I guess I must continue to vote for him.

Cures When Doctors Fail.

Mrs. Frank Chiasson, Patterson, La. writes June 8th, 1901: "I had malaria fever in very bad form, was treated by doctors, but as soon as I stopped taking their medicine the fever would return. I used a sample bottle of Herbine, found it helped me. Then bought two bottles, which completely cured me. I feel grateful to you for furnishing such a splendid medicine, and honestly recommend it to those suffering from malaria as it will surely cure them." Herbine, 50c a bottle at the Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

A Rollins College professor relates a serious tussle with the syllables of the names of our esteemed postmaster and his wife and the Rollins President:

Mrs. Whiteman—"Allow me to introduce Dr. Blackman; Mr. Whiteman, Dr. Blackman."

This recalls an old story on contradiction in names concerning Editor Blackman, of Miami, who is also a clergyman. He went to a town in Lake county to edify the white men, and learned that a negro minister, Rev. Whiteman, was there preaching to the black men.—Sanford Chronicle.

Will Cure Consumption.

A. A. Herrin of Finch, Ark., writes, "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." For sale by the Post Office Drug Store.

We are under obligations to Mr. H. C. Gates for copies of the New Orleans newspapers and a copy of the Patriotic American and the souvenir edition of the United Confederate Veteran. Mr. Gates returns home an enthusiastic lover of the Crescent City and says she treated the Confederate Veterans in a most royal and substantial manner. That the city cared for more than two thousand Veterans giving them rooms and feeding them and it need not have cost any old soldier a cent if he were disposed to be economical.
